

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Kim Conlee/316.706.9321

Retirement Planning is Focus of the February WIBA Women's Leadership Alliance Luncheon

WICHITA, Kan., January 28, 2008 . . . When you have a small business or work for yourself, what are the options to effectively plan for retirement? On Tuesday, February 5, Heather Lewis, executive vice president of Retirement Plan Solutions, will provide an overview of retirement options viable for sole proprietors and small business owners at the Wichita Independent Association (WIBA) Women's Leadership Alliance luncheon

Lewis has more than 10 years of experience as a financial professional. She has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Wichita State University and is a registered representative with series 7, 63, 65 and life and health license.

The Women's Leadership Alliance luncheon is open to all women in business – both WIBA members and non-members. It will run from noon until approximately 1 p.m. Lunch will be provided for a $6 fee if reserved in advance. To make reservations, call the WIBA office at 316-267-8987 or e-mail reservations@wiba.org. Free parking is available on site.

About WIBA/KIBC

WIBA/KIBC (www.wiba.org) is an association of privately owned businesses pooling together for benefits that will improve or enhance their business operation. These benefits include counseling, research, education, group insurance programs, networking, discounted services, and a voice in the political process.

###